Bullying, Cyberbullying, Harassment, Hazing and Retaliation Policy

Bullying, cyberbullying, harassment, and hazing of students and employees are against federal, state and local policy, and are not tolerated by The Moab Charter School. Moab Charter School is committed to providing all students with a safe and civil school environment in which all members of the school community are treated with dignity and respect. To that end, Moab Charter School has in place policies, procedures, and practices that are designed to reduce and eliminate bullying, cyberbullying, harassment and hazing - including but not limited to civil rights violations - as well as processes and procedures to deal with such incidents.

Bullying, cyberbullying, harassment, and hazing of students and/or employees by students and/or employees will not be tolerated in the Moab Charter School.

School officials have the authority to discipline students for off-campus speech that causes or threatens a substantial disruption on campus or school activities, including violent altercations, or a significant interference with a student’s educational performance and involvement in school activities. If after an investigation, a student is found to be in violation of this policy, the student shall be disciplined by appropriate measures up to, and including, suspension and expulsion pursuant to Utah Code Ann. 53A-11-904 and in accordance with the U.S. Department of Education Office for Civil Rights, loss of participation in extracurricular activities, and/or probation. If after an investigation, a school employee is found to have violated this policy, the employee shall be disciplined by appropriate measures up to, and including, termination.

Bullying, Cyberbullying, Harassment, Hazing and Retaliation Policy

b. A student; or
c. An investigator for, or witness of, an alleged incident of bullying, harassing, cyberbullying, hazing, or retaliation

D. No school employee or student may make a false allegation of bullying, harassing, cyberbullying, hazing, or retaliation against a school employee or student.

E. Any bullying, harassing, or hazing that is found to be targeted at a federally protected class is further prohibited under federal anti-discrimination laws and is subject to compliance regulation from the Office for Civil Rights.

Actions Required if Prohibited Acts are Reported

A. Each reported complaint will include:
   a. Name of complaining party;
   b. Name of offender (if known);
   c. Date and location of incident(s);
   d. A statement describing the incident(s), including names of witnesses (if known).

B. Each reported violation of the prohibitions noted previously will be promptly investigated by a school administrator or an individual designated by a school administrator. A report of bullying, cyberbullying, hazing, harassment, and retaliation may be made anonymously, but MOAB CHARTER SCHOOL school will not take formal disciplinary action solely based on an anonymous report.

C. Verified violations of the prohibitions noted previously shall result in consequences or penalties. Consequences or penalties may include but are not limited to:
   a. Student suspension or removal from a school-sponsored team or activity including school-sponsored transportation;
   b. Student suspension or expulsion from school or lesser disciplinary action;
   c. Employee suspension or termination for cause or lesser disciplinary action;
   d. Employee reassignment; or
   e. Other action against student or employee as appropriate.

D. The school will notify a parent if their child threatens to commit suicide, or if the student is involved in an incident of bullying, cyberbullying, harassment, hazing, or retaliation
   a. Moab Charter School will produce and maintain a record that verifies that the parent was notified of the incident or threat.
   b. Moab Charter School will not disclose the record described in D1 to anyone unauthorized to receive it and will not use the record for purposes not allowed under the law.

E. Compliance with the Office for Civil Rights when Civil Rights Violations Occur:
   a. Once Moab Charter School knows or reasonably should know of possible student-on-student bullying, cyber-bullying, harassment or hazing, the school must take immediate and appropriate action to investigate or otherwise determine what occurred.
Bullying, Cyberbullying, Harassment, Hazing and Retaliation Policy

b. If it is determined that the bullying, cyber-bullying, harassment or hazing occurred as a result of the student-victims’s membership in a protected class, Moab Charter School shall take prompt and effective steps reasonably calculated to:
   i. End the bullying, cyber-bullying, harassment, or hazing ii. Eliminate any hostile environment, and
   iii. Prevent its recurrence.

c. These duties are Moab Charter School’s responsibilities even if the misconduct also is covered by a separate anti-bullying policy and regardless of whether the student makes a complaint, asks the school to take action, or identifies the bullying, cyberbullying, harassment or hazing as a form of discrimination.

F. Actions must also include, as appropriate:
   a. Procedures for the victim and other involved individuals from being subjected to:
      i. Further bullying, cyberbullying, harassment, or hazing, and
      ii. Retaliation for reporting the bullying, cyberbullying, harassment, or hazing.
   b. Prompt reporting to law enforcement of all acts of bullying, cyberbullying, harassment, hazing, or retaliation that constitute suspected criminal activity.
   c. Prompt reporting to the Office for Civil Rights (OCR) of all acts of bullying, cyberbullying, harassment, hazing, retaliation that may be violations of student(s)’ or employee(s)’ civil rights.
   d. Procedures for a fair and timely opportunity for the accused to explain the accusations and defend his actions prior to student or employee discipline.
   e. Procedures for providing due process rights under Section 53A-8-102 (licensed staff) and local employee discipline policies prior to employee discipline or Section 53A-11-903 and local policies (students) prior to long term (more than 10 day) student discipline.

Investigations
Moab Charter School will promptly and reasonably investigate allegations of bullying, cyberbullying, harassment and/or hazing. The Moab Charter School Investigators will be responsible for handling all complaints by students and employees alleging bullying, cyberbullying, harassment, or hazing as outlined in the procedures below [insert procedures by which reports are to be made to the School Investigators].

It is Moab Charter School’s policy, in compliance with state and federal law, that students have a limited expectation of privacy on the school’s Internet system, and routine monitoring or maintenance may lead to discovery that a user has violated district policy or law. Also, individual targeted searches will be conducted if there is reasonable suspicion that a user has violated policy or law. Personal electronic devices of any student suspected of violation of the above policy will be confiscated for investigation and may be turned over to law enforcement.

Training

A. All students, staff, and volunteers at Moab Charter School will receive annual training from a qualified professional regarding bullying, cyberbullying, harassment, hazing. This training will address:
   a. Over aggression that may include physical fighting such as punching, shoving, kicking, and verbal threatening behavior, such as name calling, or both physical and verbal aggression or threatening behavior
   b. Relational aggression or indirect, covert, or social aggression, including rumor spreading, intimidation, enlisting a friend to assault a child, and social isolation;
   c. Bullying, cyberbullying, harassment or hazing of a sexual nature or with sexual overtones;
   d. Cyberbullying, including use of email, web pages, text messaging, instant messaging, three-way calling or messaging or any other electronic means for aggression inside or outside of school
   e. Civil-rights violations including training and education specific to bullying based upon students’ actual or perceived identities, and conformance or failure to conform to stereotypes. Training on civil rights violations will include compliance when civil rights violations are reported
   f. Awareness and intervention skills such as social skills training.

B. Volunteers are under direct supervision of a licensed educator who is responsible for ensuring the volunteer is trained in the above areas. Volunteers are required to report to their supervising licensed educator if they are notified of a bullying, cyberbullying, hazing, harassment, or retaliation incident among students or if they reason to suspect such an incident. Volunteers are prohibited from engaging in bullying activities, themselves and will be asked to leave Moab Charter School if in violation of this policy.

C. Pursuant to 53A-15-1301, the School will implement a youth suicide prevention program for students.

D. Pursuant to 53A-1-203, all licensed educators must complete 2 hours of professional development of youth suicide prevention training once every license renewal cycle. To the extent possible, other programs or initiatives designed to provide training and education regarding the prevention of bullying, cyber-bullying, harassment, hazing, and retaliation will be implemented.

E. In addition to training for all school employees, students, employees, and volunteer coaches involved in any extra-curricular activity shall:
   a. Participate in bullying and hazing prevention training prior to participation in the extra-curricular activity;
   b. Repeat bullying, cyberbullying, harassment, and hazing prevention training at least every three years;

c. Be informed annually of the prohibited activities list provided previously in this Policy and the potential consequences for violation of this Policy.

Additional Notes

1. 53A-11a-301 requires that this policy be developed with input from (1) students, (2) parents, (3) teachers, (4) school administrators, (5) school staff, or (6) law enforcement agencies.

2. All information received in a complaint, names of complainants shall be treated with the utmost confidence to the extent possible. Administrators shall notify complainant before revealing his name.

3. A student assessment of the prevalence of bullying in MOAB CHARTER SCHOOL school, specifically locations where students are unsafe and additional adult supervision may be required, such as playgrounds, hallways, and lunch areas, will be provided on a bi-annual basis.

4. This policy does not prohibit expressive activity protected by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution. However, if off-campus speech that may constitute a bullying, cyber-bullying, hazing, or harassment incident creates a substantial disruption to the school environment, under Tinker v. Des Moines, the School may take disciplinary action against the student who initiated the speech. Factors that the School may consider in determining whether a substantial disruption has occurred are:
   a. Whether there is a verbal or physical confrontation over the incident at school;
   b. Whether there is likely to be a verbal or physical confrontation based on evidence of a prior relationship between the victim and the student who initiated the speech;
   c. Whether any part of the speech that gave rise to the incident was repeated at school;
   d. Whether students are discussing the incident during class or if it otherwise is disrupting school work;
   e. Whether there is a widespread whispering campaign sparked by the off-campus incident that disrupts the school environment and students’ abilities to focus on school;
   f. Whether administrators who dealt with the incident were pulled from their ordinary tasks to address the incident and how much time it took out of an administrators’ day to do so;
   g. Whether speech similar to the off-campus speech in this incident has occurred in the past and has resulted in violence or near violence at school;
   h. Whether there is a negative effect on classroom activities as a result of the off-campus incident;
   i. Whether the speech was violent or whether there is a history of violence from the student/s who initiated the speech; (Note: true threats are not protected by the
